International Day of Yoga - 2022 on June 21

Senior AYUSH officers inspect Mysore Palace, Race Course

Final decision to be taken at New Delhi in consultation with Prime Minister's Office

Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham and AYUSH Officers inspecting Palace premises this noon.

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (RK&BCT)- Senior officers from the Ministry of AYUSH, Government of India, visited Mysuru this morning and held a closed-door meeting with the top officers of the District at the DC's Office and discussed the possibility of holding the main International Day of Yoga (IDY)-2022 event in Mysuru, on June 21.

They later visited Mysore Palace, Karnataka Exhibition Grounds and proceeded to the Mysore Race Course.

Inspecting the entire venues and asking for site maps, the officials examined the area, extent, facilities, entrance and exits, security, parking, transportation, nearby accommodation and also the likely weather in June.

The visit comes in the wake of Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and Uttara Kannada MP Ananth Kumar Hegde urging Prime Minister Narendra Modi to attend the IDY-2022 main event in Mysuru on June 21. As it has been a practice, the PM attends the main IDY event (mass Yoga demonstration) from 7 am to 8 am and this time, the inclination is on choosing Mysuru as the main event venue.

The officers team was led by Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha, Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH, New Delhi. Others in the team were Kavita Garg, Joint Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH and Ramachandra, Commissioner, AYUSH.

No Smart City Mission for Mysuru: Centre

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (KMS&BCT)- Contrary to the claims made by politicians, Parliamentarians and Ministers that Mysuru will get the Smart City project, the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs has clarified that Mysuru will not be included in the Smart City project.

In a communiqué to the State Government, the Ministry has stated that at this juncture there is no proposal to include any city in the country under the Smart City Mission. Instead, financial assistance will be given to different development projects undertaken by various City Corporations, the Ministry has stated.

Mysuru had missed out an opportunity of development while seven other cities in Karnataka like Bengaluru, Tumakuru, Belagavi, Shivamogga, Davanagere, Hubballi-Dharwad and Mangaluru were seeing large-scale development.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Do we want temporary happiness or permanent bliss? Why are we not happy in the first place? What is wanting? Why is others' approval so essential for us? Let's turn to the Bhagavadgita for some answers. For one, the words 'pleasure' and 'bliss' are often used interchangeably, there is a mix-up, seldom considered odd in literature. Poets too often take the liberty of using one for the other. To end this confusion, Krishn in the Gita has drawn a clear line and cautioned everyone against this folly. Our senses drive us to pleasures, which can turn out to be a source of unceasing pain. This is so because pleasures are often short-lived and once exhausted, they leave behind a sense of loss and injury. Pleasures are said to be 'dukkha-yoni' and 'adyant-vantah', having a beginning and an end. The one who seeks 'atyantika sukha', bliss, needs to know that it cannot be achieved or even perceived by our senses. It can be reached only by one's buddhi, reason. And having attained bliss, one is never shaken even by sorrows of the greatest magnitude, says the Bhagavadgita, verse 6:22.

Bliss can be achieved only in the nihilistic space between thoughts, which are a result of one's history, the past. So say modern thinkers like Eckhart Tolle, Ram Dass and Wayne Dyer. The logic again is anasakti, non-attachment. Attachment can give rise to a sense of non-fulfilment and make you feel frustrated. The lingering problem is: Can we jettison our past for good and forestall the future? We could make a sincere effort to this end. It is ultimately the realisation that matters. And it is essential, because looking back invites regrets and looking beyond the present, the future that is, gives rise to uncertainty and fear.

Man dubbed 'Human Satan'

Praia Grande: A man who is a huge fan of extreme body modification has had his ears cut off so he can 'celebrate the end of Covid-19 face mask mandates'.

Praddo, who lives in the Brazilian city of Praia Grande, is known on the internet as 'Diabao' – which means devil – but called 'Human Satan' in the media. Praddo is covered in tattoos across around 85 percent of his body and has had more than 60 procedures to change his appearance, including having one of his fingers amputated so his hand could look 'more alien'.

On top of that, he's got horns implanted into his head, has had his belly button removed, and has had part of his nose taken off too. Despite being called a devil, Praddo has also said in the past that he does believe in God.

Boy, 13, set to graduate from University

St. Louis Park: A 13-year-old Minnesota boy is set to graduate with a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota in May— and he's planning to get his doctorate.

Elliott Tanner of St. Louis Park is scheduled to graduate in May from the University of Minnesota with a major in physics and a minor in math. Tanner said the next step in his education will be the school's doctoral physics program.

The boy's mother, Michelle Tanner, said he taught himself to read at an age when most kids are still figuring out how to tie their shoes.

Tanner started reading college-level textbooks at the age of 9, and two years later he graduated from Normandale Community College with an associate of science degree. He said he is hoping to earn his doctorate and give back to the University.

VOICE OF THE READER

Let's take care of stray dogs in our locality

Sir,

This refers to the letter titled "Stray dog menace in Gokulam" (Star of Mysore dated Apr. 23). I am residing in Gokulam for the last 6 years and I don't see any such problem with regard to street dogs.

Most of the street dogs are neutered by the City Corporation and many residents are taking care of the street dogs in their locality, which is a good thing to do as these strays take care of any unforeseen dangers. In fact one of the street dogs alerted us about the poisonous snake in our compound.

I would like to mention that dogs are not ferocious because of the pampering by the resident; it's because of the amount of the garbage and stale food that is disposed by the careless residents which attracts other territory dogs which is actually causing problems.

Instead of pointing finger at innocent animals, if the residents are more sensible and responsible towards their neighbourhood all problems can be tackled.

The City Corporation is doing its best to collect garbage on daily basis; even after that I can see the locality is filled with garbage, sometimes expired medicine, glass pieces are also disposed of which pose life threat to animals like cows and dogs.

I would request all the residents to be kind towards animals in their locality. If they take care of at least one dog, it will take care of the entire locality in case of any danger.

District Industries Centre disappoints self-employment aspirants

Priority given only to applications from the Head Office of the Department of Industry and Commerce

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (MK&TRR)- It is alleged that the District Industries Centre (DIC) which is supposed to provide self-employment opportunities to unemployed youths is in a dormant state, thereby dashing the hopes of self-employment aspirants for the last five years.

It is believed that about 90 percent of self-employment aspirants, who had applied for land and other facilities from District Industries Centre are being made to wait for the last five years unsure about the fate of their pending applications.

In all, 451 applications were received during 2017-18; 63 in 2018-19; 376 in 2019-20, 191 in 2020-21 and 74 applications in 2021-22 totalling 1,155 applications, which were submitted to the DIC. Out of the total 1,155 applications, only 10 percent have been selected as beneficiaries and were allotted industrial plots in Kadakola, Tandya, Koorgalli, Adakanahalli and Himmavu industrial areas developed by Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) which is also authorised to allot plots.

According to the size of the plots, SC/ST community applicants have deposited 10 percent of the land cost and other community applicants have paid 30 percent of the land cost and are still waiting.

Project applications below Rs. 15 crore and with a land requirement below 2 acre are scrutinised and selected for land allotment by a 'Sub-Committee' under the Chairmanship of DIC Joint Director and a 'District Single Window Committee' headed by the Deputy Commissioner. The selected applications are then forwarded to the KIADB.

But it is alleged that the applications received from DIC are being put in cold storage and instead, applications received from the Department of Industries and Commerce Head Office are given priority and even lands are being allotted, giving the impression that the DIC exists only for namesake.

The building on Sayyaji Rao Road that houses the Office of the DIC Joint Director.

It is learnt that during the last 4-5 years neither the Department of Industries and Commerce nor the DIC have given any land to applicants who have applied for half acre or one acre. Non-availability of land, problems from the farmers are the excuses being given by KIADB in this connection

Speaking to Star of Mysore, SC/ST Industrialists Association Zonal President R. Manjunath said, "The applications which come through Karnataka Udyoga Mitra in the Department of Industries and Commerce Head Office premises seeking five acre land are being allotted lands at a brisk pace where as applications received from DIC are being neglected completely."

"Hundreds of applicants have paid money to KIADB and are waiting for the lands to be allotted. The Government is only coining and campaigning slogans like 'Udyami Aagu, Udyoga Needu' but is not providing opportunities to self-employment seekers in Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts. Even compensation to the lands acquired are not paid to farmers and litigations are going on for the last 10-15 years," Manjunath added.

Reacting over the allegations, Mysuru DIC Joint Director Dinesh told SOM that land allotments for projects are made on two considerations. Projects of over 15 crore and involving 2 acres of land and projects below Rs. 15 crore and requiring below 2 acre land. "Applications which come under the first category entirely comes under the discretion of the Department of Industry and Commerce Head Office, the second category, where projects below Rs.15 crore and below 2 acre land requirement will be at the discretion of DIC and here also, only 25 percent are selected and the remaining 75 percent are selected by the Dept. of Industry and Commerce Head Office after we scrutinise the applicants' eligibility and the ability to execute the proposed project," he explained.

MCC budget's eco-friendly measures

Rs. 7 crore for legacy waste removal at Vidyaranyapuram

Mysuru Apr. 29 (MTY, SBD & BCT)- The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) budget for 2022-23 presented by M.S. Shobha, Chairperson of the Standing Committee on Taxation, Finance and Appeals on Apr. 28, has made certain important announcements for the city including the clearing of legacy waste accumulated at Vidyaranyapuram Sewage Farm (Excel Plant).

If the legacy waste of nearly 3.08 lakh tonnes is cleared, it will drastically improve the cleanliness quotient of the city. The budget proposes to use a biomining process to clear the waste that has piled up over the years, causing unbearable stench. Rs.7 crore has been set aside for the project.

Bioremediation is the best process to clear the waste. It is a process of treating contaminated soil and subsurface material, by altering environmental conditions to stimulate growth of micro-organisms and to degrade the target pollutants.

Though the proposal to clear the legacy waste had been approved by the Government, the project was caught in a quagmire. Once the legacy waste is cleared, an estimated 27 acres of land at Vidyaranyapuram can be reclaimed by the MCC. In addition, it will stop groundwater pollution.

Construction and demolition debris

Another important announcement in the budget is the allocation of Rs. 5 crore for the establishment of a C&D (construction and demolition) waste recycling plant with a capacity of handling 100 tonnes of building debris per day.

Dumping of construction debris is a big issue in less populated places and on Ring Roads. Every day, Mysuru generates over 150 tonnes of C&D waste. People carry such waste in trucks and dump them under the cover of darkness. The dumping usually is carried out in less-populated areas and on the Ring Road. It is difficult to identify such people and bring them to book.

Also, lack of C&D Waste Treatment Plant was one of the factors having a negative bearing on the city in its performance in the Swachh Bharat Survey. The budget has 9.05 acres of land for the purpose at Sathagalli and Rs. 5 crore has been allocated in this budget for the project that is estimated to cost Rs. 15 crore.

Park maintenance

There are 529 parks within the MCC limits and 291 are being maintained after development. Fund shortage and staff crunch are forcing the Corporation not to take up the development of the remaining parks that have not seen any development.

The budget proposes handing over the maintenance of the parks to corporates, industrialists, banks and IT companies. At least 150 parks will be taken up for development under this Public-Private-Partnership (PPP) model. A proposal has been submitted to the Government to keep in abeyance the interest component of arrears pertaining to water tax where the Government has been urged to announce a one-time waiver of interest on water bill dues of defaulters, who owe payment to MCC.

Water bill dues in the MCC has run up to Rs. 220.57 crore, for which Rs. 74.18 crore interest has been levied on defaulters and in an attempt to collect at least the outstanding principal amount, the MCC has sought to lighten the interest burden on the defaulters. If the proposal is accepted, the MCC will be in a position to recover a large portion of the dues.

Name Mysore Airport after Nalwadi

Activists demand to rename all seven airports in Karnataka after eminent personalities of the region

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (RKB&BCT)- Amidst talks about the extension of the runway at the Mysore Airport, a group of activists under the banner of Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Kendra Samithi, Bengaluru and Akhila Bharatha Vokkaliga Mahasabha, Mysuru have demanded the Airport be named after Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar. Along with the renaming of Mysore Airport, they have also called for renaming other airports in Karnataka — Shivamogga Airport after Rashtrakavi Kuvempu, Hassan Airport as H.D. Deve Gowda (former PM) Airport, Mangaluru Airport after Nadoja Kayyar Kinhanna Rai, Kalaburagi Airport after Jagadjyothi Basavanna, Hubballi Airport after Kittur Rani Chennamma and Belagavi Airport after Sangolli Rayanna.

Addressing a press meet at Patrakarthara Bhavan in city yesterday, Hon. President of Akhila Karnataka Vokkaliga Mahasabha and writer C.P. Krishnakumar said that the Civil Aviation Ministry would be requested to consider their demand to rename the airports recognising their contributions to the region.

It is apt to name the Mysore Airport after Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar as the late ruler has contributed immensely to the development of the region. Likewise, Rashtrakavi Kuvempu rose to national fame from Shivamogga and if Airports are named after such eminent personalities, their fame would be etched in the memory of people and will also get international recognition, he claimed.

He said that in the past, representations were sent to the Centre which was signed by eminent personalities from Karnataka but the demand was not considered. The State Government must exert pressure to consider the demand, Krishnakumar added.

Those who had signed the representation earlier included former VC D. Javaregowda, actress B. Saroja Devi, Gavisiddeshwara Swamiji of Koppal Gavisiddeshwara Mutt, Jnanpith awardee Chandrashekara Kambar, littérateurs Chandrashekar Patil, Kum Veerabhadrappa, Prof. G.S. Siddalingaiah, B.T. Lalitha Nayak, Nadoja Chennaveera Kanavi, former Ministers Leeladevi R. Prasad, Rani Satish, Dinesh Gundurao, G.T. Devegowda and B.L. Shankar, former MLAs Vasu and K.S. Puttannaiah. "Over 30 eminent personalities had signed the representation to the Centre but the demand has not been met so far," he said.

Karnataka Vokkaligara Sangha Director C.G. Gangadhar, Akhila Karnataka Vokkaliga Mahasabha State President Bettegowda, Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Pratishtana Trustee A.J. Devaraju, Karnataka Sena Pade District President Tejesh Lokeshgowda and President of Mysuru and Chamarajanagar Vokkaligara Sangha C. Mariswamy were present.

They held discussions with the District Administration authorities including DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, senior officials from AYUSH, Police and Deputy Director of Mysore Palace Board.

The media was not allowed to the meeting. This IDY (eighth in a series) will be a grand affair as it is being held after two years of virtual events and this year's celebrations coincide with Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Sources told Star of Mysore that the final decision on the venue will be taken by the officers in New Delhi in consultation with the Prime Minister's Office that will have a final say in PM Modi's visit and security clearance.

As it will be a large gathering in case the PMO confirms the visit, the sprawling 139.30-acre Mysore Race Course is likely to be a preferred venue.

The Race Course can accommodate a large gathering nearing a lakh or so and moreover it has good access roads and not congested. The PMO will prefer such a venue where a security blanket can be thrown on, sources added.

Smart City Mission

Smart City is a unique programme that has been implemented in the country for the first time. It was conceived soon after Modi Government took office in May 2014 and it was announced in June 2015. The idea was to use technology to introduce ease of living and inclusive and sustainable development.

The Centre's communication was disclosed to the media yesterday by Karnataka Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj. In fact, after missing out on the Smart City project due to a procedural lapse though Mysuru was well eligible to qualify for the project, elected representatives and Ministers tried their best to convince the Centre to include Mysuru in the mega project.

Mysuru lost out as it did not fully utilise the 80 percent of Jn-NURM funds. Also, the Mysuru City Corporation failed to do a local audit from 2007 and this deprived the city of a slot under Smart Cities Mission.

14-year-old girl becomes Nagarahole RFO for two days

'Make a Wish Foundation' brings a smile on the face of cancer patient with a dream career

Hanagod, Apr. 29 (Mahesh & BCT) - The smile on 14-year-old Aishwarya's face yesterday was incomparable. The enthusiastic child from Mandya, who became a Range Forest Officer (RFO) at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve (NTR) for two days, is a cancer patient.

It was her dream to become a Forest Officer and her wish came true, thanks to the authorities of the NTR, who readily obliged hearing the condition of the little one. Aishwarya is a 7th standard student in Bevakal village of Mandya district and is under treatment for bone cancer at Kidwai Memorial Institute of Oncology in Bengaluru.

14-year-old Aishwarya seen saluting with ACF Satish after taking charge as Range Forest Officer at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve yesterday.

Learning about her wish, Make a Wish' Foundation, a non-profit initiative based in Bengaluru, brought this to the notice of the Forest Department four months ago. The Foundation had urged the authorities to give her an opportunity to fulfil her wish, said Foundation Convener Arun Kumar. The Foundation provides succour to children between five and 16 years of age suffering from serious illness.

After four months of efforts, the Department agreed and Aishwarya was given the gift of being an RFO at Nagarahole. Yesterday, dressed in the khaki uniform of the RFO with three stars and KFD (Karnataka Forest Department) insignia on her shoulders and donning a Department cap with a badge, Aishwarya took charge.

She was given a formal appointment letter and was seated in the RFO's desk. Expressing happiness over the gesture, Aishwarya said that she had an interest in conserving forests. "There is a small forest near our village and I heard stories from my grandmother about animals. I had dreamt of becoming a Forest Officer. It is all our responsibility to save flora and fauna," she said.

Her grandmother was a 'Group D' employee at Aranya Bhavan, the Forest Department Office in Mysuru. After browsing certain files at the RFO Office along with Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) Satish, Aishwarya was taken on forest rounds this morning along with other Department staff where anti-poaching activities were explained to her.

Aishwarya was briefed about the welfare of the forest staff and was provided documents regarding some of the initiatives. Her two-day service comes to an end this evening.

PRINCIPAL

WORD OF THE DAY

Askance

Pronunciation: uh-SKANSS.
Meaning: Askance means "with disapproval/distrust" or "with a side-glance."
Origin: Askance, which etymologists believe may have been influenced by askew, comes from Middle English forms such as askaunce, a-skans, a-skaunces, meaning variously "in such a way that," "as if," "as if to say," and "artificially" or "deceptively." The word was first used in English in the 16th century with the meaning "sideways" or "with a sideways glance," and writers over the years have used the suggestion of someone looking askance at something to express a number of feelings from disapproval and distrust to jealousy.
Example: 'Sometimes not being authentic to the region is a good thing.' ... [chef] Klime Kovaceski, who also prefers dried pasta to fresh, understands that some purists might look askance at his methods." — Connie Ogle

THE ODD WORD

Abbozzo

Preliminary sketch.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Add fuel to the fire

Meaning: The phrase 'add fuel to the fire' means when you do or say something that makes a miserable situation even worse. 'Adding fuel to the fire' means to make a situation or conflict intensify, especially via provocative comments.
Origin: The direct opposite of "add fuel to the fire" is "douse the flames". This is said when one tries to extinguish or calm down a situation.
Example: "I had plenty to say about the situation, but I was afraid I would add fuel to the fire. So I kept my mouth shut."

Words are only painted fire; a look is the fire itself. — Mark Twain
